

Telling the Truth About Breast & Other Cancers

Presented by: Wall of Hope Breast Cancer Survivors' Project®
Sponsored by: Union Bank of California & Diablo Funding Group

This is a seminar for survivors of all types of cancer, as well as for their families, friends and the concerned community, and anyone who is serious about helping to solve the cancer problem. "Telling the Truth About Breast & Other Cancers" is meant to inform and empower people, arming them with information they need to enable them to make a difference in helping to end this terrible disease.

The seminar will be held at the City of San Ramon, 12501 Alcosta Boulevard, San Ramon, at The Terrace Room, on Saturday, November 5, 2005, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., with viewing of the northern California Wall of Hope exhibit between noon and 1 p.m. The cost is a donation of $30.00 per person.

Here's what to expect from the seminar:

- See excerpts from the high-impact film, "Exposure: The Environmental Links to Breast Cancer", narrated by Olivia Newton John.
- Hear activist speakers to motivate you in taking steps to solve the cancer problem.
- Network with other concerned citizens to make a difference in your community.
- Be inspired by the striking northern California portion of the exhibit

This seminar is limited to 100 persons. Tickets are $30.00 and must be reserved in advance. Light refreshments will be served.
